PROCLAMATION

Four years ago on April 5, 1933, a program was launched under the name of the Civilian Conservation Corps. Under this program a number of CCC Camps were established in the state of South Dakota, and a great amount of work undertaken which has proven to be of benefit to the outdoor and recreational life of our citizens.

On April 5, 1937, the several CCC Camps in South Dakota and throughout the nation will hold open house in order that our citizens may see what is being accomplished under this program.

As Governor of South Dakota, I, therefore, urge that all citizens, and particularly those in the vicinity of the CCC Camps of our State, take advantage of the opportunity offered and accept the invitation of the Civilian Conservation Corps to inspect their camps and view the work which they have accomplished.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 29th day of March, 1937.
